As an intimate group of 4-7, we'll gather in opulent peace. Lovina is a sleepy yet beautiful ocean village in the north of Bali. Feel your nervous system instantly calm as you arrive deep within this jungle paradise.

Breathe slow while you take in the expansive view over a tropical landscape (the ocean 15mins drive away). Our private villa, a mix of traditional Balinese and modern furnishings, offering a comfortable and relaxing atmosphere. An experience you'll remember forever.

Enjoy the infinity pool overlooking the jungle and open-air dining and living areas where you'll be soaking up new wisdom to support your PIVOT and restoration.

Entrepreneur Artistry

There is no separation between you & your business.

To only use your mind, is to shut off a part of you that is ready to show you how to live & create unique success in this world.

Because that's what you are.

Unique.

Melanie Midegs is a Psychosomatic Therapist, Artist & EQ Business Specialist.

For over 7 years Melanie has devoted her time to mentoring & teaching 100's of entrepreneurs globally about how to PIVOT via her IP -
The Business Chakra System*©.

In a world that's constantly changing, there's one strategy that you can rely on at all times - that's your body.

Psychosomatics is the study of mind-body connection. Melanie has an ability to read your body, and reveal to you what your body and emotions are pointing at for you to focus on in your business.

With 'hustle' thankfully a business culture that's slowly transitioning to mindfulness & self-care since around 2019 (absolutely in 2023), leaders are now ready to learn how to create their businesses and success in a way that of course requires effort... but with a lot more happiness and ease.

"I would definitely recommend. This knowledge of the Business Chakra System© has shown me how to do business more consciously, and helped me to own my truth. Everything in the retreat flowed and has been very helpful and constructive."

*Nora Gasperini
CEO L'Atelier Parfums et Créations*

The Focus... Your EQ

We're told to keep emotions out of business. Melanie challenges this lie and proves how your emotions are in fact your biggest ally.

Your emotions tell you exactly what you need to look at, how to make decisions, and how to turn things around.

EXPECT:

- 1) To walk away a better version of yourself
- 2) Discover a new sense of peace & calm
- 3) Find clarity & a framework to keep you on track no matter what challenges you face.

This retreat isn't another 'hustle, make-your-website, getting-stuff-done' weekend, or 'how to switch off' to then return home to a mountain of overwhelm a week later.

This about getting real as a HUMAN BEING in business and MASTERING IT.

The only way you'll ever be able to PIVOT and have your big dream, take things up a notch, or make the money you desire without keeling over, is if you get emotionally intelligent and listen to your body first.

That's the truth.

"The PIVOT Restore Retreat helped me to find the real 'me'... how I can overcome my self-doubt & let go of my guilt and fear to pursue my dreams."

Vanda Mathilda
Chief Operating Officer

Your choice between...

Time for a life & overwhelm/burnout.

Precision & reaction.

Loving what you do & resenting it.

A good nights sleep & tossing and turning.

Feeling supported & continual stress.

Remember who you are.

Slow Down to Speed Up.

Why PIVOT Restore Retreats?

In 2023 we are entering a new era of Renaissance. It will separate those who operate purely from the mind, from those who are attuned emotionally. The latter being those who will in fact lead the way.

While the collapse of familiar integral world systems and structures occur, the rebirth alongside Artificial Intelligence, will in fact be a more connected community and way of living – this includes how you run your business.

No more is it about quantity and mindless accumulation. Rather it's about quality.

The quality of your life, the quality of your work and the quality of REAL LIFE experience over a virtual one.

PIVOT Restore Retreats are designed for the ultimate experience of personalised attention to education, connecting with self and remembering who you are. You will walk away with memories that you will share and drawn on for a lifetime.
